

RISING PEAKS

About Rising Peaks

Rising Peaks is The Presbyterian and Methodist Schools Association's (PMSA) new outdoor education and learning destination, taking its inspiration from the four surrounding peaks within the Moogerah Peaks National Park.

The 6.97 ha site will provide a meaningful outdoor education and experiential learning program, with a commitment to develop students' emotional intelligence and character through experiences beyond familiar environments.

About the role

The successful applicant will be responsible for leading and managing the day-to-day activities of the campus. This is a unique opportunity for a highly motivated and experienced outdoor education leader to deliver a world-class program.

Key areas of responsibility:

- Oversee all aspects of Rising Peaks' operations, including planning, budgeting, scheduling and execution.
- Optimise and develop a greenfield outdoor education site into a premier destination for environmental learning and recreational activities.
- Oversee the outdoor education experiential learning programs for both Junior and Senior Schools, collaborating with teaching and learning stakeholders to ensure alignment with broader educational objectives.
- Staff recruitment, management and development.
- Lead and adhere to all relevant child safeguarding requirements.
- Procurement and supplier management.
- Ensure that the pastoral care programme for students and the treatment of all members of the community is aligned to The PMSA's Christian ethos.

Experience:

- Proven ability as an outstanding outdoor education leader, with demonstrated passion for inspiring, guiding and supporting young people in realising their potential.
- Extensive experience in outdoor education, strategically, operationally and commercially.
- Proven leadership in the development of budgets and business performance metrics.
- Demonstrated strategic agility, with well-developed understanding of contemporary and emerging approaches to experiential learning program delivery.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills to collaborate effectively with colleagues, parents and the wider PMSA school community.
