

Vice Principal - Howqua Campus SCHOOL

Transforming education, one leader at a time

Lauriston Girls' School is one of Australia's most successful and innovative Independent Girls' Schools. With an educational vision to be a School for Life, Lauriston enjoys an enviable reputation providing rigorous, innovative and engaging academic and co-curricular programs that deliver excellence in wellbeing programs and achieve outstanding academic results.

Lauriston Girls' main campus is based in the inner Melbourne suburb of Armadale and caters for students from 3-year-old Kindergarten to Year 12, offering both VCE and IB pathways. The 'Howqua' campus is Lauriston's second campus. It is located near the Victorian country town of Mansfield and caters for Year 9 students residing on site. A key differentiator of a Lauriston experience, Howqua showcases the powerful and positive impact of a well-established and well-resourced experiential program that is strategically embedded into the fabric of a school community. In 2023 Howqua celebrated its 30th year and was the winner of the Australian Education Awards' "Best Co-Curricular Program".

The Vice Principal – Howqua Campus is responsible for the leadership and implementation of a dynamic Year 9 academic, wellbeing and experiential learning program. The Vice Principal, as Head of the Howqua Campus, leads the Howqua Management Team, actively supporting, managing, and engaging in the day-to-day operations, duties and activities in alignment with the School Vision, Values and Mission. A unique appeal of this role is the opportunity to collaborate widely with the broader school community. In particular, the Vice Principal enjoys a close and collaborative relationship reporting directly to the Principal and is a member of the Senior Executive Team.

The successful candidate demonstrates a proven ability to:

- proactively communicate and effectively support and contribute to whole school Senior Executive team functions and strategy
- lead, engage, and inspire staff, students and parents to actively embrace the Howqua campus philosophy
- design, deliver, evaluate and review programs reflective of industry best practice and pedagogical excellence
- develop staff and student agency and leadership capacity, fostering a positive culture of growth and collaborative decision making
- nourish community relationships and actively advocate the benefits of experiential learning programs to the wider community
- ensure good governance through effective planning and managing of finances and administration as well as shaping, organising and facilitating operations and logistics
- develop and embed Risk Management and Compliance policies, procedures and protocols to support an environment that upholds the highest standards in Child Safety.

The successful candidate will reside and be present on site as well as proactively contribute to events in Armadale. Benefiting from a competitive remuneration package, this position also includes a small teaching allotment.

With a negotiable start date, preferably at the commencement of Term 3, 2024, applicants must have a right to work in Australia and be VIT registered.

Lauriston Girls' School has zero tolerance for child abuse and is committed to providing a child safe environment where children and young people are safe and feel safe, as outlined in the Child Protection Policy and staff Code of Conduct.

Hutton Consulting Australia is partnering with Lauriston Girls' School in the search and selection process for this position. For a confidential discussion and to obtain a Candidate Information Pack, please contact the lead consultant Chris Menagé on mobile: 0427 703 483 or email chris.menage@hutton.education or Fiona Hutton on fiona@hutton.education

Applications close on Friday 16th February at 5:00 pm.

Please ONLY APPLY directly via Hutton Consulting Australia's website at: <https://hutton.education/opportunities>